How in the world is someone supposed to answer this question? Could the city be more welcoming yes because I didn't get a gift basket when I moved here. Is it the job of the city to welcome me or is it the job of the neighbors. Will you legislate that I must be welcomed.

I'm unsure how to answer this. On the top of the playground equipment there are drawings of penises and people announcing their sexuality. It is an odd place to do so. I am also concerned about the drawing skills and anatomy knowledge of the artists as they are poorly drawn at best.

Please share any additional comments or ideas (Optional):

Whoever did this survey is acting like they are the Human Resources department of the city.

The schools are small enough to give a lot of personal attention when needed. I recommend doing more to welcome and support new kids and to teach kids more about diverse backgrounds - provide more opportunities to interact with other communities if there isn't enough diversity choosing to attend Madeira City schools.
