If the stores and restaurants here have been unfriendly to someone I would encourage those people to look within to identify their own insecurities.

Madeira parks and recreational facilities/activities are friendly and welcoming to me.

As a recent graduate of Madeira Schools, I found my time there to be pleasant and enriching. I felt as if administration was truly concerned with the concerns of us students and our families, and worked effectively to address them.

Madeira hosts city events that are friendly and welcoming to me.

McDonald commons is full of many fine memories for me. From elementary school field days, to high school sports practices, to early morning summer whiffle ball games, to evenings walking the trails and playing games under the shelter with my friends, I always felt safe and welcome there.

Please share any additional comments or ideas (Optional):

I'm quite young and I haven't been everywhere, but I've been a fair amount of places. I am enrolled in a college program where I am fortunate enough to meet people from all over the country and the globe. I hope to one day have a career that will afford me the ability to travel to many places, but I always have known deep down that no matter where I go, I will always want to live in Madeira. I believe wholeheartedly that there is no finer place on this earth than our Friendly Town.

Trying to force a welcoming environment more often than not undermines the goal of a friendly town. By acting as a compassionate person, you will draw other compassionate people to you naturally.
