Unfortunately the inclusion committee prefers to focus on superficial diversity as opposed to actual diversity. There are so many ways we are diverse and friendly. The overwhelming majority in this town welcomes all races, religions, sexual orientations. The left leaning members of this committee want us to all look different but think the same. They insist on feeling they need to "educate" people as opposed to listen. If this weren't a superficial survey we'd include socioeconomic status, generations in household, marital status, English second language, political identity, first generation immigrants (we actually have many!). In addition, the survey should be translated into other languages so that members of our diverse community could all respond.

Madeira's motto is the "Friendly Town". I feel Madeira is friendly and welcoming to me.
