Really, Madeira Inclusion Committee?

I am the daughter of immigrants. I prefer to be offended by this Committee. Whatever happened, to meeting a person on the streets of Madeira, smiling, engaging, connecting, and letting a relationship develop, without Committee <sup>people</sup> looking over your shoulder. Letting connection happen naturally. My parents taught me, Nobody is better than YOU, AND YOU are NOT Better than anybody else. You people don't get humanity. Your Committee is clearly, about arrogance, self-importance and of course political. Is not this country divided enough, with talking, talking? This Committee will not work, but one on one will. No, I am not old, conservative, or ~~racist~~. Madeira is a great place to live and your Committee <sup>Racist</sup> will divide it. Shame on all of you!

TO: Inclusion Committee

We have lived in Madeira possibly longer than most of the committee has lived on this earth. I live next to a rental which over the years has housed Blacks, Caucasians, Oriental, and Mexicans. Neighbor relationships have never been a problem. Relationships are not a matter of striving for inclusion, but one of just getting along with your neighbor.

If business in Madeira mistreats the customer, the customer will go elsewhere. That is a business principle. If a person chooses to not get along with his neighbor for whatever reason, and there are many, he will isolate himself.

Madeira does a great job of promulgating the 4th of July festivities, Memorial Day activities, the street dance, etc.

It is my opinion that Madeira should not promote specific group functions. Certainly make city facilities available to the group but let them promote their own program.

I find your survey distasteful and divisive and totally unnecessary. I also know that this sort of thing is commonplace in our society at this time, but should not create a need for Madeira to 'go along'. We could be better than commonplace.

Again, Madeira was built on strong family values -
Your answer which use to be universal - Madeira was a Community now it is becoming fractionalized - as this survey proves - instead of celebrating our common interest we are being divided into groups - Why?

Your answer Friendly & welcoming to who? Yes, all of different religions, race, sexual orientation would be welcome in our "Family Valued" Community - We all have differences the desire to Keep 'Dividing Us' will destroy Madeira.
Does the "Inclusion Committee" want to welcome the homeless - who indeed need help & compassion. If the 'inclusion committee' wants dysfunctionality like California - please move there.

I am returning this survey, only so I can add my comments. I am not understanding the reason for this? What difference does it make whether I, or anyone else for that matter, think Maderia is a friendly city? What does that have to do with anything? Who moves to a place because it is friendly, unless it's maybe a retirement home or The Villages in Florida? Why is friendliness even an issue? I want a community that is safe, one where people keep their property in good order, cut their grass, rake their leaves, has good fire and police protection, good schools and a good location.

No other way to put it, but this survey is stupid. Who came up with the idea of a friendliness survey? Is there a friendliness standard that must be followed? If so, please let us know what that is so that we know how to act. Will there be "friendly police" to let us know when we are not being friendly? As far as restaurants and stores, if they are not friendly, we can choose not patronize them. Problem solved.

Who created this survey? Anyone with a market research background? Wonder how many people filled out multiple copies? What was the purpose supposed to be? Who is going to analyze any surveys returned? How many surveys will be thrown out and not counted because the people behind the survey do not like the answers? Will the results of this survey be published? What is going to be done with data gathered?

Why is the demographic data needed? That's what the census is for. What does it matter what ethnicity, religion or sexual preference someone has? Is there a goal for target numbers in those areas? Will someone determine there are not enough gays in Madeira and will there be a plan to encourage gays to move to Madeira? I image we are probably pretty low on Buddhists and Humanists. And what about the "nones"? Do they need to be "saved"?

If someone can afford an overpriced house in Maderia and pay our taxes, they will be welcomed. I* cannot imagine anyone looking for a friendly community before moving there. This is a waste of taxpayer money and the city administration and council's time.

Your answer I remember my friend telling us to look for homes in Madeira <sup>31+ ago</sup> because it was like Andy Griffiths 'Mayberry' sm. town, friendly, warm & friendly. We did not use Madeira schools, we used private, but still enjoyed a great ~~community~~ <sup>camaraderie</sup> from sports, church, swim club, neighbors - similar values helped us feel cohesive. We did not ask about - Religion, sexual orientation

We have always enjoyed the smaller scale events
Your answer - Memorial Day is so meaningful - we truly missed the students essays this past year - is patriotism out of style for students?

4th of July - love our community coming together

Street Dance / Art Fair Market Day - wish ours were better

Madeira City Schools are friendly and welcoming to me and my household.
